Key vocabulary
Celtic cross	A Christian cross with a ring or a halo
church	A building where Christians go to worship
holy	Something that is 'set apart' from the ordinary, it has a link with God
sacred	Something that is 'holy' because it has a connection with God or a holy person saint	A person who is 'holy'
Standing stones	Stones that are standing upright, they have been put there by people from prehistoric times
St Piran	The patron saint of Cornwall
St Sampson	A saint from mid-Cornwall

By the end of the unit, you should be able to:

Make sense of belief:

- Recognise that there are special places in Cornwall that are sacred to believers.
- Identify at least three sacred/holy places in Cornwall and give a simple account of how they are used, why they are important and what people do there.

Re-tell a story about a Cornish Saint and connect this story to the local area

Understand the impact:

- Give examples of stories, objects and symbols used in churches, which show what people believe.
- Talk about why some places are considered to be sacred in Cornwall and how communities celebrate this.

Make connections:

- Think, talk and ask good questions about what happens at a sacred place saying what they think about these questions, giving good reasons for their ideas.
- Talk about what makes some places special to people in Cornwall and what the difference is between some sacred places.
