Our School Blog

On Thursday this week, Mrs Manton and I, had the pleasure of taking a group of children to Waterstones in Truro to purchase some books for our library. What a rewarding sight it was to see how delving into the huge array of books on the shelves, confirmed their love and enthusiasm for books and reading. The children chose some fantastic titles that I am sure will be enjoyed by anyone and everyone that reads them.

If you missed the Dojo post yesterday; our school has been awarded the Autism Friendly School status by Cornwall Council! Please do take a moment to read the information shared as this really is a very impressive achievement and makes me so proud.

Finally, a reminder that the deadline for Christmas card orders and payments is Tuesday 23rd October (and please remember you need to buy cards before you can buy any other products). Unfortunately, any orders that have not been matched with a payment, will be cancelled.

Have a great weekend... Mr Gynn

School holiday club will be running again in the next half term break (Mon 28th Oct - Fri 1st Nov) and bookings are already open!

Huge thanks to BBFriends for hosting and helping with the 'National Baking Week Bake Sale' and to everyone that contributed and baked for the event. I was really taken aback with the efforts that so many KS2 children made with their baking and was thrilled to see such a variety of delicious treats available.

An incredible £138.40 was raised, which will be used to treat the children throughout this academic year.

If your child is absent from school without authorisation, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £80 if paid within 21 days or £160 if paid after this but within 28 days. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may result in legal action. Absence not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates' Court under Section 444(1) or Section 444(1A) of the Education Act 1996, leading to a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a custodial sentence. Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court.

This week's achievers

Well done to the children below for following our BB Rules for Life. This week, we are celebrating our achievements in Science

Little Doves

Oscar W

For asking inquisitive questions to learn more about the human lifecycle and how people change as they get older

Little Fish

Billy

For your enthusiasm, engagement and questions during Science lessons

Little Lambs

Walter

For lots of inquisitive questions during the human lifecycle topic

Pelicans

Max T

For your amazing understanding of invertebrates and considering how we can help look after the habitats of animals

Peacocks

Louise

For always producing exceptional work in Science

Phoenix

Hannah

For a super informative report on endangered species and how changes in their environment have contributed to the threat of extinction

Angels

Bentley

For showing curiosity and engagement in Science. You asked questions about the world around you and genuinely enjoyed exploring scientific concepts

Faith

James

For always tackling problems with a scientific, systematic approach

Hope

Max M

For your inquisitive mind and your thought-provoking questions about gravity

Congratulations to Lily C, Lily V, Lauren, Eleanor, Scarlett and Lowena who are our first group of Super Sixes. You have consistently shown our school rules, both in the classroom and when on the playground.

Thankyou for being fantastic role models for the rest of the school.

Our school vision is at the heart of all we do at Bishop Bronescombe. We feel it is important to share the achievements of children who have worked hard to share their gifts and talents

This week's achievers...

This week, we learnt about and celebrated our school vision of trust

Little Doves

Ruan

For always being a trustworthy member of the class. Miss Caff can always trust you to listen and follow instructions

Little Fish

Lowen

Mrs Horwell can always trust you to follow the school rules for life

Little Lambs

Lydia

For showing trust in the adults in your room to look after and support you

Pelicans

Emily

We can always trust you to be a good role model for your peers, exemplifying a positive working ethos and respectful manners

Peacocks

Francesca

For trusting the adults and trying new things

Phoenix

Freddie

For always being 100% reliable and trustworthy. You are always a STAR student!

Angels

Joseph

You consistently demonstrate trustworthy behaviour. You always do the right thing, stick to the rules and take responsibility for your own actions. Well done!

Rosie

For being a trustworthy member of the class that we can rely on to act responsibly

Hope

Emma

We can always trust you to work collaboratively with your peers

Dear God,

Help us to show trust in each other and show each other support. When times are hard, please share your light and guidance and we will put our trust in you.

Amen
