

What would Jesus do?

Matthew Mark Luke John

Overview of the topic

Prior Learning

PUPILS MAY KNOW AND WILL BUILD ON KNOWLEDGE BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

Know the Big story of the Bible and the Big Frieze

- The good news is not just about setting an example for good behaviour and challenging bad behaviour: it is that Jesus offers a way to heal the damage done by human sin.
- Christians believe that they should bring this good news to life in the world in different ways, within their church family, in their personal lives, with family, with their neighbours, in the local, national and global community.

This unit continues to build on the units in LKS2 in which pupils think about the role of the disciples, how Christians try to show God's love like Jesus, study the Gospel texts and make connections between the teachings of the Gospel and their own life.

Key vocabulary

Gospels	Comes from the Anglo Saxon godspell, meaning "good tidings," or bringing good news, and the good news it-self. The four gospels in the Bible are Matthew, Mark, Luke and John in the New Testament
Sermon	A talk on a religious or moral subject, especially one given during a church service and based on a passage from the Bible .
Disciples	A dedicated follower of Jesus.
Meek	Quiet, gentle, and easily imposed on; submissive.
Community	A group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.
Interpretation	Ways of explaining the meaning of something .

By the end of the unit, you should be able to:

Make sense of belief:

- Identify features of Gospel texts (for example, teachings, parable, and narrative).
- Taking account of the context, suggest meanings of Gospel texts studied, and compare their own ideas with ways in which Christians interpret biblical texts.

Understand the impact:

- Make clear connections between Gospel texts, Jesus' 'good news', and how Christians live in the Christian community and in their individual lives.

Make connections:

- Make connections between Christian teachings (e.g. about peace, forgiveness, healing) and the issues, problems and opportunities in the world today, including their own lives.
