Our school blog

As many of you will have seen in the news, the NEU have confirmed a further two dates where they will be taking industrial action. These dates are in the same week: Wednesday 5th July and Friday 7th July.

At this stage it is too early for us to be able to confirm exactly which classes we will be able to open. We will try to make a decision as early as possible so that parents and carers can put in place alternative childcare arrangements.

Please note that our scheduled sports day has now been rearranged for Tuesday 27th June.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mr Gynn

Goodbye & Good Luck Year 6

As it's almost time to say goodbye to our current year 6 pupils, we'll be hosting a 'Leavers BBQ' for them on Wednesday 19th July from 3.15-4.30pm.

Following the BBQ, we will hold our traditional 'Clap Out'. (We would usually do this on the last day of term but this year it's the summer fete).

It would be amazing to see as many of you as possible waiting at the top gates at 4.30pm to be part of this experience for the children.

This week's achievers

Well done to the children below for following our BB Rules for Life. This week, we are celebrating our achievements in mathematics

Little Doves

Tyler

For your effort in maths lessons. You tried really hard to identify tens and ones in a number

Little Fish

Louise

For the way you consistently and methodically work through your work, ensuring you have read the questions correctly. This means you are a very successful mathematician - well done!

Little Lambs

Arya

For showing exceptional mental methods during maths lessons

Peacocks

Sophie M

For working really hard to practise your times tables ahead of the year 4 multiplication check and for demonstrating perseverance during the 'Time' topic

Pelicans

Connor

For always wanting to improve and showing excellent improvement in your timetables

Phoenix

Emily

For your attitude to maths learning. You are so resilient and always push yourself to achieve the best you can.

Angels

Molly

For showing an incredible attitude to find the difference between positive and negative numbers. It was lovely to see you so confident!

Faith

Lexi

For always trying your best in maths and showing fantastic problem solving skills

Hope

Skyla

For wowing us with your confidence with your coordinates knowledge

This week's achievers...

This week, we learnt about and celebrated our school vision of courage

Little Doves

Violet

For showing courage by talking to new people and making lots of new friends

Little Fish

Jacob

For having the courage to make the most of the day yesterday, even though you had a bit of a wobble

Little Lambs

Harry C

For showing courage to join in with lessons and give fantastic ideas

Peacocks

Lowen

You have settled into Bishop Bronescombe brilliantly, making lots of friends and particularly enthusiastically in your lessons. Well done

Pelicans

Piran

For being so incredibly brave during your accident. We're so proud of you and wish you a speedy recovery

Phoenix

Amelia

You have shown so much courage this year and we have noticed just how much you push yourself out of your comfort zone. You should be so proud of yourself

Angels

Ethan M

For having the courage to be yourself, and for being the most incredibly uplifting, kind and brilliantly funny child this year. Seeing your personality come out has been incredible!

Faith

Ellie

For trying your hardest in all lessons this week and for contributing brilliantly in class

Hope

Annie

For singing a solo for the first time in front of an audience - you wowed us!

Dear God,
Thank you that the bible reminds us that you are always with us and that we can trust in you. Thank you that you are with us during the 'stormy' times, but also in the good times too and that you care about each one of us
Amen

BBebies Big Toddle

Last week BBebies took part in a sponsored walk in aid of the very worthy charity; Barnardos.

We couldn't be more proud of the children as not only did they walk a combined distance of 50 miles over the week, but also raised a staggering amount of over £600!!

Huge thanks to everyone that took part and all of the family and friends that sponsored them.

Rainbow Colour Run Fun!!

This time last week we took part in the Rainbow Colour Run, (to support the Trust's chosen charity, Penhaligon's Friends) and the children loved it! Laughs, smiles and dancing all round whilst raising the whopping sum of £1823.50. Massive thanks to everyone that helped us achieve this fantastic amount.
